Re: Extension of Long Term Service Agreement
Pursuant to Article III, Section 10.5
Of Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company's General Terms and Conditions of its FERC Gas Tariff Gas Transportation Agreement Contract Number(s) 267

Dear Mr. Foote:

Reference is made to the above referenced Gas Transportation Agreement(s) between Fitchburg Gas and Electric Light Co. and Tennessee Gas Pipeline Company ("Tennessee") relating to the firm transportation by Tennessee of certain quantities of gas ("Service Package"),

Article XII of the above-mentioned Service Package(s) provides, in part, as follows:

This contract shall be effective as of 9/1/1993, and shall remain in force and effect until 3/31/2000 ("Primary Term") and on a month to month basis thereafter unless terminated by either Party upon at least thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other Party; provided, however, that if the Primary Term is one year or more, then unless Shipper elects upon one year's prior written notice to Tennessee to request a lesser extension term, the Agreement shall automatically extend upon the expiration of the Primary Term for a term of five years; and shall automatically extend for successive five year terms thereafter unless Shipper provides notice described above in advance of the expiration of a succeeding term; provided further, if the FERC or other governmental body having jurisdiction over the service rendered pursuant to this Agreement authorizes abandonment of such service, this Agreement shall terminate on the abandonment date permitted by the FERC or such other governmental body.

Further, on 3/30/1999, the above-mentioned Service Package was extended through 1/31/2004 pursuant to Article III, Section 10.5.

Our records indicate that the Service Package(s) will automatically extend for a term of five years effective 2/1/2004, unless Fitchburg Gas and Electric Light Co. notifies Tennessee in writing to the contrary by close of business on 1/31/2003.

Therefore, in accordance with Article III, Section 10.5 of Tennessee's General Terms and Conditions, please indicate your decision below and return a copy of this election form to Dodson Skipworth in the enclosed envelope or by facsimile @ (832) 676-1864.

If shipper contemplates electing a Reduced Transportation Service Package Quantity, on other than a normal pro rata basis across the contract, please contact Dodson Skipworth as soon as possible to discuss implementation of such a reduction. Otherwise, Tennessee will implement a binding reduction on a pro rata basis. Any non-pro rata reduction must have the same zone makeup of the Service Package
